THE STATE OF INDIGENT DEFENSE IN OHIO IN FY 2009

I. Introduction

“The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours.”

Gideon v. Wainwright

The Constitutional promises made by the United States Supreme Court in Gideon remain challenges for Ohio. Ohio’s indigent defense system remains on the precipice of a Constitutional crisis as caseloads increase while available funding declines. Because indigent defense is a constitutionally required service, chronic underfunding of the system has left the state on the verge of a constitutional crisis. The Ohio Public Defender Commission has worked during Fiscal Year 2009 to hold the looming Constitutional crisis at bay, while also attempting whatever large-scale systemic reform is possible in light of funding and political realities.

Ohio’s indigent criminal defense framework relies upon state and county funding, while each county retains control over its local defense system. During FY 2009, Ohio’s county governments, which bear “[a]n excessive portion of the burden of providing indigent criminal representation,”<sup>1</sup> have had to slash county budgets as local revenue has continued to diminish. Though a local public defender office can reduce its budget by cutting staff, public defenders are powerless to control the two primary causes of increased demands for indigent defense services: demand is driven in part by county arrests, prosecutions, and sentencing choices; and demand is driven by the regular passage of new “tough on crime” legislation that increases the number of offenses and/or the penalties for offenses. Either circumstance directly implicates the Sixth Amendment right to counsel, and correspondingly increases the need for criminal legal representation of indigent persons across Ohio.

Eight Ohio counties have experienced more than 200% growth in their indigent criminal cases since 1997 – Carroll, Cuyahoga, Darke, Lorain, Lucas, Pike, Vinton, and Warren. In 22 other Ohio counties, indigent caseloads have spiraled by more than 100% during this period – Ashtabula, Brown, Butler, Columbiana, Crawford, Fayette, Fulton, Greene, Hancock, Harrison, Highland, Holmes, Jackson, Licking, Logan, Morrow, Muskingum, Pickaway, Putnam, Richland, Union, and Van Wert. Yet, funding across Ohio has continued to decrease.

Before FY 2009 began, an Executive Order reduced the agency’s FY 2009 GRF budget by 2%. Additional cuts of 4.75% and 5.75% were ordered in September and December 2008, respectively. The agency’s allotments for contracts, maintenance, and equipment were reduced by 30% during the fourth quarter. Thus, during FY 2009, the Ohio Public Defender Commission continued to wrestle with ensuring indigent defendants the Sixth Amendment guarantee to effective assistance of counsel in light of additional fiscal restraints.

The denial of effective counsel in Ohio had been documented well before FY 2009. In 2008, the National Legal Aid and Defender Association (NLADA) determined that Hamilton County, largely due to state funding deficiencies, failed to serve its indigent population with effective legal representation as defined by the Sixth Amendment. While the NLADA report specifically addressed Hamilton County's indigent defense services, other Ohio counties and their public defender and/or appointed counsel systems increasingly face similar challenges that demand fundamental reform at not only the individual county level, but also the state level.

II. Ohio Public Defender Commission reform efforts during FY 2009

The Ohio Public Defender Commission, having recognized the need for reform, now faces the substantial problems that undermine delivery of a constitutionally adequate indigent defense system in Ohio. But no overnight reform is possible. Though increasing the government dollars devoted to indigent defense is the most obvious solution long-term, the Commission recognizes that existing funding and political realities require supplemental and alternative solutions as interim measures towards reform.

During FY 2009, the Ohio Public Defender Commission has taken additional steps beyond increased funding to ensure that the criminal representation afforded Ohio's poorest citizens meets minimal Constitutional standards. For example, upon the request of local county officials, Ohio Public Defender Tim Young and his staff followed up the 2006 NLADA report by conducting an on-site audit and investigation of indigent defense in Hamilton County in early November 2008. The Ohio Public Defender then published a written report detailing the results of the investigation on December 11, 2008. The Ohio Public Defender Commission continues to closely monitor Hamilton County reform needs as we enter FY 2010.

The Ohio Public Defender Commission has also sought reform by amending the administrative code sections governing indigent defense. The amendments seek to achieve pay parity between prosecutors and public defenders, establish caseload standards, and initiate statewide training programs. The combination of these measures, and others, ultimately will improve Ohio's criminal justice system, and should reduce system costs by, for example, reducing jail and prison sentences, and eliminating unnecessary appeals, post-conviction and actual innocence cases that could be avoided through better public defense services.

During FY 2009, Ohio's prison population continued to increase. The Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Correction (DRC) predicts continued, substantial increases in Ohio's prison population over the next seven years, reaching a projected 70,058 prisoners by 2016.<sup>2</sup> The Ohio Public Defender has worked with the Governor, General Assembly members, and other state leaders to decriminalize certain traffic offenses and other nonviolent offenses that increase demands for legal representation of indigent defendants without increasing public safety. The rising incarceration rates for nonviolent, low-risk behavior continues to unduly burden a judicial and prison system that instead could focus on more serious and dangerous offenders as targets for incarceration, thus, incidentally, decreasing public defense costs.

III. Budget needs require continued advocacy

A. State Office Operating Budget

As a consequence of budget cuts, the Office of the Ohio Public Defender's GRF operating budget for FY 2009 is 23% lower than for FY 2000. Increased non-GRF revenues that have been generated through the Indigent Application Fee and the Civil Case Filing Fee do not make up for the reductions in GRF funding. An additional $1.2 million is required to maintain current operational levels and to provide the needed oversight and quality control reforms facing Ohio's indigent defense state and county partnership.

B. County Reimbursement Budget

For FY 2009, the State committed $28.5 million in GRF funding to county reimbursement. In FY 2000, the GRF appropriation for county reimbursement was $34.1 million. Yet the statewide costs for providing indigent defense have continued to escalate. Statewide costs have increased from $70 million in FY 2000 to $117.2 million for FY 2009, an increase of 67.4%. Thus, the counties face a 67% cost increase while receiving 16.4% less in GRF funding from the State.

The following chart highlights the crux of the funding problem. State reimbursement to the counties holds steady or even decreases, while the overall system cost increases. This leaves the counties to shoulder an ever-growing portion of the cost of this Constitutional mandate.

Indigent Defense
System Cost/State Reimbursement History

IV. Recommendations

The need for immediate and long-term reform of Ohio's indigent defense system is real, and can only be expected to increase as caseloads increase and funding decreases. Long-term solutions must be considered, but shorter-term fixes certainly are in the mix, given economic and political realities. The Ohio Public Defender Commission continues to maintain that the following reforms are fundamental to Ohio's promise and Constitutional guarantee that indigent defense services within this State will meet Sixth Amendment standards of scrutiny.

- An additional appropriation of $61.2 million to indigent defense will assure a 50% level of reimbursement to Ohio's 88 counties.
- Pay parity for public defenders and prosecutors will increase the quality of representation and restore fundamental fairness, while also reducing systemic costs of enhanced prison sentences, and appeals and other post-trial proceedings, including new trials engendered by ineffective counsel.
- The Ohio Public Defender Commission should have statutory authority to set minimum rates for appointed counsel in order to attract and retain quality attorneys as appointed counsel.
- The Ohio Public Defender Commission should establish mandatory caseload standards for public defenders.
- The Office of the Ohio Public Defender should be sufficiently funded to assure that it can fulfill its constitutional and statutory obligations while conducting training and certification programs for public defenders and appointed counsel. The Ohio Public Defender Commission should be empowered to deny reimbursement for services provided by poorly-performing criminal defense attorneys to discourage trial courts from additional appointments.

V. Conclusion

The status of Ohio's indigent defense as the State enters FY 2010 can, in a phrase, be described as "down but not out." Though caseloads continue to escalate and available funding remains inadequate, the Ohio Public Defender Commission has launched the initial phases of what we hope will become substantial reform. The Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution demands no less.

"Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. .... That government hires lawyers to prosecute and defendants who have the money hire lawyers to defend are the strongest indications of the widespread belief that lawyers in criminal courts are necessities, not luxuries."

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY AUTHORITY

In Gideon v. Wainwright, the United States Supreme Court extended the Sixth Amendment right to counsel to all persons accused of crime, regardless of the accused's ability to pay for counsel. Additionally, Article I of the Ohio Constitution provides that "[i]n any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel."

In 1976, the Ohio General Assembly enacted Ohio Revised Code Section 120, which established the Ohio Public Defender Commission "to provide, supervise, and coordinate legal representation at state expense for indigent and other persons."

Ohio Revised Code Section 120.06 authorizes the State Public Defender to provide legal representation under five circumstances:

- 1) When an indigent adult or juvenile is charged with an offense or act for which the penalty includes the potential loss of liberty;
- 2) When an indigent person, while incarcerated in any state correctional institution, is charged with an offense or act for which the penalty includes the potential loss of liberty;
- 3) When any person incarcerated in any correctional institution asserts he is unlawfully imprisoned or detained;
- 4) When the State Public Defender has provided representation and an appeal of the decision is warranted;
- 5) When an indigent adult or juvenile is charged with a parole or probation violation.

The State Public Defender fulfills its statutory mandate in its central office by providing legal representation to capital and non-capital adult clients, as well as juveniles. The central office also provides necessary business support to the agency, including processing reimbursement for counties' indigent defense costs.

Through contracts with participating counties, the State Public Defender also operates the Trumbull County Branch Office and the Multi-County Branch Office, which provide legal representation to indigent criminal defendants at the county level (i.e., trial and direct appeal representation).

OFFICE ORGANIZATION

I. Legal Division

The Legal Division serves non-capital adult clients. The appeal and post-conviction section represent clients in state and federal courts throughout Ohio with the goal of providing the finest legal representation possible within available resources.

After the right to counsel at trial and direct appeal has been exhausted, defendants may also seek the assistance of the State Public Defender with their claims of unlawful imprisonment. Legal Division attorneys strive to quickly determine whether a client's claim has arguable merit. If a claim does not have arguable merit, the attorney meets with or writes to the client to explain that determination. If a claim has arguable merit, the attorney uses the latest research tools and, with the assistance of support staff, litigates the claim in the appropriate courts.

The Legal Division includes the Prison Legal Services Section. Prison Legal Services performs three critical functions: reception center orientation, parole violation hearing representation, and file management and case assignment. The State Public Defender has attorneys stationed at the state prison reception centers who meet with inmates within a few weeks of their arrival. Potentially-meritorious cases are identified and forwarded to the central office for further review and assignment.

II. Juvenile Division

Juvenile Division attorneys represent juveniles who have been committed to the Ohio Department of Youth Services on appeal and in other post-disposition issues. In addition to providing legal representation on appeal, attorneys offer legal assistance, such as gathering general information for youth, correcting sentencing errors, and filing motions in juvenile court. The Juvenile Division also coordinates with and provides training to defense attorneys who handle juvenile work around the state, and provides legislative advocacy on right to counsel issues and other substantive issues involving children in the justice system.

III. Death Penalty Division

The Death Penalty Division provides, coordinates, and supervises legal representation for indigent criminal defendants in capital cases. Death Penalty Division attorneys handle all three types of post-trial cases: direct appeal, post-conviction, and habeas corpus. In addition, the assistant public defenders assigned to this division frequently advise and assist attorneys defending indigent capital clients at trial.

A. Direct Appeals

The Supreme Court of Ohio's review of a capital case on direct appeal is mandatory under ORC §2929.05. Death Penalty Division attorneys represent clients on direct appeal before the Ohio Supreme Court when the State Public Defender is appointed to appeal a conviction and death sentence imposed by a trial court. The direct appeal process also includes discretionary review by the United States Supreme Court.

Although the direct appeal process is limited to a review of any matters contained in the trial record, the litigation of these appeals is complex and the records are usually voluminous. Attorneys handling direct appeals must be certified under Ohio Supreme Court Superintendence Rule 20.

B. Post Conviction

Death Penalty Division attorneys represent capital clients by petitioning for relief in the trial court under ORC §2953.21. This statute provides a means of relief for trial errors that cannot be fully litigated on direct appeal. Post-conviction cases thus involve an extensive investigation into matters outside the trial record.

Attorneys must have expertise in topics that apply to the off-record challenge of a client's conviction or death sentence (for example, ballistics, blood spatter, DNA, post-traumatic stress, cultural mitigation, substance abuse, and mental retardation). This area of practice involves both trial-level skills, when evidentiary hearings are granted by the trial court, and appellate skills, as a client has an appeal of right if his or her petition is denied.

C. Federal Habeas Corpus

Death Penalty Division attorneys also represent capital clients in federal courts on habeas corpus proceedings. A habeas petition is filed after a client has exhausted his or her direct appeal and state post conviction remedies. On habeas, attorneys combine the prior claims raised on direct appeal and state post conviction in one petition to the United States District Court. In this habeas petition, the client may only seek relief on claims that involve a violation of the United States Constitution (for example, violation of the Sixth Amendment right to effective counsel or violation of the Eighth Amendment right to present mitigating evidence for sentencing).

Habeas cases are complex. An attorney on a capital habeas case must know substantive constitutional law and must be well-versed in a body of law that deals with the procedural technicalities that often arise when a federal court reviews a state prisoner's claim. This area of practice also combines the skills used in direct appeals and state post conviction cases. Habeas counsel may be called upon to take depositions, examine witnesses at a hearing, and draft appellate briefs (all habeas cases filed in Ohio, win or lose, are reviewed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in Cincinnati).

IV. Trial Section

ORC §120.06(D) provides that the State Public Defender may represent an indigent person accused of a serious crime when appointed by a court or when a county public defender makes a request for assistance.

The agency's Trial Section was created during fiscal year 1998. Trial attorneys represent clients in capital or other high-profile trials, generally when conflicts prevent local counsel from providing representation or the county otherwise lacks necessary resources.

The State Public Defender also accepts cases under the County Representation Program whenever resources permit. In most instances, these are appeals for which judges are unable to secure local counsel.

V. Investigation and Mitigation Section

Criminal Investigators assist attorneys by developing evidence that will be used during trial or, after the trial, that should have been used during trial (this evidence is presented on state post-conviction or federal habeas). The Criminal Investigator's focus is twofold: first, analyzing and challenging the evidence that the State uses to carry its burden of proof; and second, finding evidence the defendant needs to bring forward to rebut the State's case.

Mitigation Specialists assist attorneys in developing evidence that will mitigate the punishment imposed on clients found guilty of capital or non-capital criminal offenses. In non-capital cases, they work to develop community placements as an alternative to incarceration and to provide information that may lower the prison term if one is imposed. In capital cases, Mitigation Specialists do the critical work of tracking down information about a client's life history that attorneys rely on in their efforts to demonstrate that a death sentence is inappropriate for their client.

VI. Administrative Division

The Administrative Division provides necessary business support services to the agency. The Division is composed of six sections: Fiscal, Office Services, Human Resources, Information Systems, County Reimbursement and Assistance, and Legal Resource Center/Library. Additionally, the State Public Defender, agency legal counsel, and public information officer are considered part of the Administrative Division.

In 2008, the State Public Defender created the County Outreach Section. This program provides a free consulting service to Ohio counties, conducting an in-depth evaluation of their local indigent defense system. This evaluation includes making recommendations to help counties reduce costs, improving the quality of service, and maximizing state reimbursements. The Ohio Public Defender observes each of the courts and/or speaks with judges, prosecutors, public defenders, local bar members, county commissioners, auditors, court reporters, and bailiffs. The office gathers data, prepares budgets, conducts statistical analysis, and provides other information on current and alternative delivery systems.

VII. Branch Offices & County Assistance Programs

ORC §120.04(C)(7) allows the State Public Defender to contract with a joint or county public defender commission or with a board of county commissioners to provide services that a county public defender would otherwise provide. The State Public Defender operates two such programs: the Trumbull County Branch Office and the Multi-County Branch Office.

A. Trumbull County Branch Office

The State Public Defender has maintained and operated a branch office in Trumbull County since 1984. Located in Warren, this office delivers indigent criminal defense representation in the courts of Trumbull County.

The office staff includes attorneys, investigators, paralegals, and secretaries. The State Public Defender also contracts with local attorneys, in order to afford flexibility in managing caseloads. Cases handled by staff and contract attorneys range from misdemeanors to capital offenses, including juvenile cases and appeals.

At the Common Pleas level, branch office attorneys provide representation in the four general divisions and in the Juvenile and Domestic Relations divisions. At the municipal and county court levels, representation is provided in the cities of Niles, Newton Falls, Girard, Warren, Cortland, and Brookfield. Attorneys also provide appellate representation in the 11th District Court of Appeals in cases handled by the branch office in the lower courts, or for defendants who can no longer afford representation at the appellate level.

The state and county jointly fund the operation of the Trumbull County Branch Office. The percentage paid by each mirrors the reimbursement rate applicable to all counties under either the assigned counsel or county public defender systems. Approximately ten percent of the Trumbull County contract obligation comes from the participating municipalities.

B. Multi-County Program

The Ohio Public Defender began the operation of the Multi-County Branch Office Program in January of fiscal year 1991. The program includes ten counties in the south and southeastern part of the state: Adams, Athens, Brown, Fayette, Jackson, Meigs, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, and Washington.

The State Public Defender has established three branch offices in Athens, Ross, and Washington counties. These offices provide indigent defense services to these counties and offer support services to all participating counties. There are private attorneys or law firms working under contract in each of the ten counties.

The program is supported by financial contributions from both the counties and the state, with the state contributing a portion relatively equal to the percentage of overall state reimbursement.

Prior to the implementation of the Multi-County Program, all participating counties, except Athens, used the appointed counsel system exclusively. Under an appointed counsel system, attorneys are paid on a case-by-case basis. Because of this, as caseloads increase, costs are likely to increase proportionately. Under the Multi-County Program, contract attorneys and assistant state public defenders agree to provide representation in cases assigned to them over a fixed period of time for a pre-determined fee or salary. An increase in caseload, therefore, does not directly increase the overall cost, since existing staff can absorb much of the increased caseload. The result is a lower average cost per case and a lower overall cost.

C. County Assistance

ORC §120.04(B)(13) requires the State Public Defender to “provide technical aid and assistance to county public defender offices, joint county public defender offices, and other local counsel providing legal representation to indigent persons....” In addition to the various assistance programs mentioned earlier, the Legal Resource Center maintains an expert witness list. Attorneys in need of experts call the central office librarian, who provides them with the necessary information. The central office library also supplies case law to the law librarians in the state correctional institutions.

The State Public Defender central office also offers assistance to county public defenders’ investigators. County public defenders typically cannot afford to purchase access to various records databases. The State Public Defender takes requests from the county public defender investigators to run searches for their cases. The vast majority of the requests are for arrest records and for help in locating witnesses.

COST OF COUNTY PUBLIC DEFENDER OFFICES
FISCAL YEARS 2008 & 2009

Table VIII shows the 100 percent cost the counties reported to the State Public Defender to operate public defender offices, followed by the amount reimbursed each year for fiscal year 2008 and fiscal year 2009. Counties prepare monthly expense reports that are certified by county auditors. The county auditor then submits the report to the State Public Defender for reimbursement for up to 50 percent of allowable costs.

TABLE X
APPOINTED COUNSEL SYSTEMS CASELOAD, HOURS, AND EXPENSES
FISCAL YEAR 2009

Table X, on the following pages, shows the caseloads and 100 percent costs submitted for reimbursement during fiscal year 2009. The table shows cases, hours, and expenses broken down into seven categories -- felonies, misdemeanors, juvenile, appeals, death penalty, felonies in municipal/county court, and other. The cases in the category "felonies in municipal/county court" are felonies that are initially filed in municipal or county court. The cases are only in those courts for a brief period of time prior to indictment, the preliminary hearing, or 15 days after arrest, whichever comes first. Since the longest these cases can last is 15 days and the municipal court has no jurisdiction to find a defendant guilty of a felony, and since most of the cases will eventually be picked up at the common pleas court level, they are not counted as a "felony" case at this stage. This prevents giving the same weight to a case that lasts 14 days and the full-fledged case that lasts six months. It also prevents double counting the same case. The category "other" includes postconviction, parole, habeas corpus, extradition, and other miscellaneous cases.

In fiscal year 2009, the state reimbursed the counties at an average monthly rate of 35 percent.

It should be noted the figures in this table are reported using the cash basis of accounting, meaning they show the cases and costs submitted to the Ohio Public Defender that were actually reimbursed during fiscal year 2009 pursuant to Office of the Ohio Public Defender's reimbursement schedule. Because the cash basis is used, these figures will not match cases and costs reported by counties on either a calendar or fiscal year basis. In addition, the figures contained in the death penalty category are based on reimbursement for both new and ongoing cases. Attorneys may submit more than one bill per case. Often, because of the length of time needed to try a death penalty case, bills are received in more than one fiscal year. Only new cases, however, are recorded under the "cases" column of the death penalty category. For this reason, there are instances where the number of cases is zero, but hours and expense figures are shown. In these instances, the costs are based on cases which originated in a prior fiscal year, but for which bills were received during fiscal year 2009.

The key to Table X is as follows:

Cases: The number of cases submitted and accepted for reimbursement after adjustments*. This is determined by counting each individual and unique case number as one case.

Total Hours: The number of total hours reported, after adjustments*.

Attorney Fees: The total amount of attorney fees submitted for reimbursement per each kind of case, after adjustments*.

Expenses: The total amount of expenses submitted for reimbursement after adjustments*.

Transcripts: The total amount of transcript fees submitted for reimbursement after adjustments*.

Total Cost: The 100 percent cost, after adjustments*, that was subject to reimbursement.

Avg. Fees/Hour: Attorney fees submitted divided by the number of hours reported. This does not include expenses.

Avg. Fees/Case: The total fees submitted divided by the number of cases reported. This does not include expenses.

Avg. Ttl. Cost/Case: Total cost divided by the number of cases submitted, including expenses.

**Adjustments include reducing fee requests for exceeding the State or County Fee Schedule, unallowable or undocumented expenses, denying reimbursement for failure to prove indigency, late submissions, etc.*
