THE STATE OF INDIGENT DEFENSE IN OHIO IN FY 2012

I. Introduction

“The right of one charged with crime to counsel may not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some countries, but it is in ours.”

Gideon v. Wainwright

As Fiscal Year 2012 concludes, we must look forward to the 50-year anniversary, in March 2013, of the United States Supreme Court case that laid the foundations of indigent criminal defense, Gideon v. Wainwright. That unanimous decision has stood prominently in American legal history during the half century since it was announced. Yet, as the numbers of poor people entitled to and needing counsel when accused of crimes has increased, the quantity and quality of legal resources necessary to assure this Sixth Amendment Constitutional guarantee proportionately have decreased. Ohio’s effort to resolve this inherent dilemma continues, as in all 50 states.

The promise of Gideon must be remembered, in an age in which state and local governments seek to make hard choices on which governmental services can be cut as available funding for those services diminishes. Indigent defense organizations at the state and county level must struggle with insufficient financial security, constant personnel turnover, increasing caseloads, difficult clients, unfavorable press, inadequate training opportunities, and lack of current technology needs, to name just a few institutional challenges. Management of the Constitutional mandate pronounced by Gideon has become, under these circumstances, a constant juggling act.

Seeking to avoid what could become, without careful monitoring and care, a Constitutional crisis, the Ohio Public Defender Commission focused during FY 2012 on possible long-term solutions to fiscal and political headwinds while also acknowledging the short-term needs of clients. The discrete and particular needs of Ohio’s 88 counties have been heard and often addressed by statewide auditing and assistance offered to those counties. The possibility of a statewide solution through a unitary funding source for indigent criminal defense continues to be studied and discussed, albeit in an environment in which the funding commitment necessary to begin the transition will require a sustained legislative leadership and fiscal response that has yet to gain ground.

Ohio’s existing model of delivery for indigent criminal defense delivery is composed of a combination of both state and county funding, a compromise solution under which each of the 88 counties and the Office of the Ohio Public Defender independently try to resolve what delivery system is most or least effective and/or what reforms would improve indigent defense, locally or on a statewide basis. During FY 2012, Ohio county governments continued to bear much of the financial burden of providing indigent criminal representation, just as the local County Commissioners bore the burden of slashing budgets and services as a by-product of reduced local revenue streams. And at the state level, the Office of the Ohio Public Defender competes with all other state agencies for a slice of the funding pie that will be adequate to support counties strapped for help with rising costs of indigent defense delivery services.

Despite the diminishing sources of funding at both the state and county levels, the Constitutional mandate to preserve the promise of Gideon made nearly 50 years ago remains, and in many ways has never been more pronounced. Solutions are not easy, and require give and take on all sides of the criminal justice spectrum. For example, when local public defender offices are reviewed for possible budget cuts and reductions, county commissioners must recognize that the demand for indigent defense services is largely driven by local arrest and prosecution numbers and judicial sentencing determinations. And at the state level, where criminal reform undertaken during FY 2012 is applauded as long overdue, more remains to be done to decrease the crowding of Ohio's prisons and the plainly overburdened Ohio criminal court systems.

The Ohio Public Defender Commission and the Ohio Public Defender have sought and encouraged creative, practical, and significant reforms during FY 2012. However, going into FY 2013 and beyond, the state's economy remains tenuous, and counties must continue to prepare for the worst case as to projected state assistance in funding indigent defense systems. The Ohio Public Defender Commission and the Office of the Ohio Public Defender applaud and appreciate the efforts of Ohio's policymakers during FY 2012, to assist with and engage in fundamental and necessary reform efforts, in arenas including the reduction of spending on corrections and the decriminalization of minor offenses not requiring incarceration. We hope to continue in this spirit of cooperative compromise as FY 2013 begins, and as Gideon celebrates 50 years of providing Constitutional protections of guaranteed counsel to indigent persons requiring and entitled to that legal assistance.

II. Ohio Public Defender Commission Reform Efforts During FY 2012

The Ohio Public Defender Commission recognizes current fiscal and political realities limiting its abilities to foster and achieve all necessary reforms to Ohio's indigent defense delivery model and services. However, during FY 2012, the Ohio Public Defender Commission and Ohio Public Defender were instrumental in achieving legislative initiatives that lay the groundwork for even more substantial future reforms.

Following its sentencing reform efforts in House Bill 86, the Ohio General Assembly pursued collateral sanction reform in Senate Bill 337. Among its provisions, SB 337:

- Creates a Certificate of Qualification for Employment (CQE) to provide ex-offenders with a means to overcome collateral sanctions;
- Provides protection from negligent hiring claims for employers who hire ex-offenders;
- Expands opportunities for both adult and juvenile ex-offenders to request that their criminal/delinquency records be sealed;
- Allows children transferred to adult court to be held in juvenile detention facilities, rather than county jails;
- Clarifies and expands the laws regarding jail-time credit and detention credit; and,
- Expands opportunities for ex-offenders to earn professional licenses and certifications.

The Office of the Ohio Public Defender was greatly involved in several meetings held throughout the state that led to the reforms included in SB 337, and was a driving force behind the legislation in the General Assembly, particularly the bill's juvenile provisions.

The Office of the Ohio Public Defender's work on Senate Bill 10, Ohio's Adam Walsh Act-implementation legislation, continued throughout FY 2012. In July 2011, the Supreme Court of Ohio issued its decision in State v. Williams (2011-Ohio-3374), declaring the registration scheme in SB 10 to be punitive. This was a groundbreaking decision, as no prior Ohio registration law had been found to be punitive. The Office of the Ohio Public Defender represented Mr. Williams in his appeal to the Ohio Supreme Court.

III. Revised Agency Funding Sources and Structure

In the past several years, the Ohio Public Defender began to transition away from dependence on General Revenue Funding (GRF) as well as make efforts to increase overall funding. In H.B. 1 of the 128th General Assembly, the 2010-2011 Operating Budget, the legislature modified Ohio Revised Code section 120.08 to accept new funding sources and to designate that 10 percent of the funds deposited to the Indigent Defense Support Fund be used for the operations of the Office of the Ohio Public Defender. The legislature appropriated funding to line item 019619: Indigent Defense Support Fund: State Office for this purpose. In the same action, the legislature renamed line item 019618 to Indigent Defense Support Fund: County Share to account for the 90 percent to be used for reimbursing counties for indigent defense costs.

In the following biennium, during the Mid-Biennium Review (MBR) process, the Ohio Public Defender requested and received a further change to the allocation of the Indigent Defense Support Fund (fund 5DY0). In H.B. 457 of the 129th General Assembly, the legislature changed the allocation of fund 5DY0 to allocate 12 percent to the Office of the Ohio Public Defender and 88 percent to county reimbursement. Given the current and projected statewide costs, the change did not reduce the 35 percent state reimbursement rate. The shift, however, did provide funding for the OPD Online information technology system - a uniform and standardized case, document, and subsidy distribution management system. The system is scheduled to begin development in fiscal year 2013.

IV. Recommendations

The need for immediate and long-term reform of Ohio's indigent defense system is real, and will surely increase as caseloads grow and funding wanes. Long-term solutions must be considered, but shorter-term fixes certainly are in the mix, given economic and political realities. The Ohio Public Defender Commission continues to maintain that the following reforms are fundamental to Ohio's promise and constitutional guarantee that indigent defense services within this State will meet Sixth Amendment standards of scrutiny.

- The creation of a unified indigent defense delivery system to ensure quality, efficiency and accountability within the system.
- Pay parity for public defenders and prosecutors will increase the quality of representation and restore fundamental fairness, while also reducing systemic costs of enhanced prison sentences and appeals and other post-trial proceedings, including new trials engendered by ineffective counsel.

- The Ohio Public Defender Commission should have statutory authority to set minimum rates for appointed counsel in order to attract and retain quality attorneys as appointed counsel.
- The Ohio Public Defender Commission should establish mandatory caseload standards for public defenders.
- The Office of the Ohio Public Defender should be sufficiently funded to assure that it can fulfill its constitutional and statutory obligations while conducting training and certification programs for public defenders and appointed counsel.
- The Ohio Public Defender Commission should be empowered to deny reimbursement for services provided by poorly-performing criminal defense attorneys to discourage trial courts from additional appointments.

V. Conclusion

As the State enters FY 2013, Ohio's indigent defense system continues to face budget challenges. Though available funding remains inadequate, the Ohio Public Defender Commission has strategically invested in programs that it believes will contribute to the systemic reform of Ohio's broken indigent defense system. A fundamental goal will be to improve efficiencies of legal services delivery to indigent persons, while maintaining existing operations at the Office of the Ohio Public Defender to ensure quality representation is provided to all persons qualified to receive those legal services when accused of criminal and/or juvenile offenses. The Sixth Amendment of the United States Constitution demands no less.

“Governments, both state and federal, quite properly spend vast sums of money to establish machinery to try defendants accused of crime. Lawyers to prosecute are everywhere deemed essential to protect the public's interest in an orderly society. That government hires lawyers to prosecute and defendants who have the money hire lawyers to defend are the strongest indications of the widespread belief that lawyers in criminal courts are necessities, not luxuries.”

Gideon v. Wainwright

CONSTITUTIONAL AND STATUTORY AUTHORITY

In Gideon v. Wainwright, the United States Supreme Court extended the Sixth Amendment right to counsel to all persons accused of crime, regardless of the accused's ability to pay for counsel. Additionally, Article I of the Ohio Constitution provides that "[i]n any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person and with counsel."

In 1976, the Ohio General Assembly enacted Ohio Revised Code Section 120, which established the Ohio Public Defender Commission “to provide, supervise, and coordinate legal representation at state expense for indigent and other persons.”

Ohio Revised Code Section 120.06 authorizes the State Public Defender to provide legal representation under five circumstances:

- 1) When an indigent adult or juvenile is charged with an offense or act for which the penalty includes the potential loss of liberty;
- 2) When an indigent person, while incarcerated in any state correctional institution, is charged with an offense or act for which the penalty includes the potential loss of liberty;
- 3) When any person incarcerated in any correctional institution asserts he is unlawfully imprisoned or detained;
- 4) When the State Public Defender has provided representation and an appeal of the decision is warranted;
- 5) When an indigent adult or juvenile is charged with a parole or probation violation.

The State Public Defender fulfills its statutory mandate in its central office by providing legal representation to capital and non-capital adult clients, as well as juveniles. The central office also provides necessary business support to the agency, including processing reimbursement for counties' indigent defense costs.

Through contracts with participating counties, the State Public Defender also operates the Trumbull County Branch Office and the Multi-County Branch Office, which provide legal representation to indigent criminal defendants at the county level (i.e., trial and direct appeal representation).

OFFICE ORGANIZATION

I. Administrative Division

The Administrative Division provides necessary business support services to the agency. The Division is composed of six sections: Fiscal, Office Services, Human Resources, Information Systems, County Reimbursement and Assistance, and Legal Resource Center/Library. Additionally, the State Public Defender, deputy director, program administrator, agency legal counsel, and public information officer are considered part of the Administrative Division.

Ohio Revised Code §120.04(B)(13) requires the State Public Defender to “provide technical aid and assistance to county public defender offices, joint county public defender offices, and other local counsel providing legal representation to indigent persons...” In addition to the various assistance programs, the Legal Resource Center/Library maintains an expert witness list. Attorneys in need of experts call the central office librarian, who provides them with the necessary information. The central office library also supplies case law to the law librarians in the state correctional institutions.

II. Legal Division

The Legal Division serves non-capital adult clients. The Appeal and Post-Conviction Sections represents clients in state and federal courts throughout Ohio with the goal of providing the finest legal representation possible within available resources.

After the right to counsel at trial and direct appeal has been exhausted, defendants may also seek the assistance of the State Public Defender with their claims of unlawful imprisonment. Legal Division attorneys strive to quickly determine whether a client's claim has arguable merit. If a claim does not have arguable merit, the attorney meets with or writes to the client to explain that determination. If a claim has arguable merit, the attorney uses the latest research tools and, with the assistance of support staff, litigates the claim in the appropriate courts.

The Legal Division also includes the Prison Legal Services Section which performs three critical functions: reception center orientation, parole violation hearing representation, and file management and case assignment. The State Public Defender has attorneys stationed at the state prison reception centers who meet with inmates within a few weeks of their arrival. Potentially-meritorious cases are identified and forwarded to the central office for further review and assignment.

III. Death Penalty Division

The Death Penalty Division provides, coordinates, and supervises legal representation for indigent criminal defendants in capital cases. Death Penalty Division attorneys handle all three types of post-trial cases: direct appeal, post-conviction, and habeas corpus. In addition, the assistant public defenders assigned to this division frequently advise and assist attorneys defending indigent capital clients at trial.

A. Direct Appeals: The Supreme Court of Ohio's review of a capital case on direct appeal is mandatory under Ohio Revised Code §2929.05. Death Penalty Division attorneys represent clients on direct appeal before the Ohio Supreme Court when the State Public Defender is appointed to appeal a conviction and death sentence imposed by a trial court. The direct appeal process also includes discretionary review by the United States Supreme Court.

Although the direct appeal process is limited to a review of any matters contained in the trial record, the litigation of these appeals is complex and the records are usually voluminous. Attorneys handling direct appeals must be certified under Ohio Supreme Court Superintendence Rule 20.

B. Post-Conviction: Death Penalty Division attorneys represent capital clients by petitioning for relief in the trial court under Ohio Revised Code §2953.21. This statute provides a means of relief for trial errors that cannot be fully litigated on direct appeal. Post-conviction cases thus involve an extensive investigation into matters outside the trial record.

Attorneys must have expertise in topics that apply to the off-record challenge of a client's conviction or death sentence (for example, ballistics, blood spatter, DNA, post-traumatic stress, cultural mitigation, substance abuse, and mental retardation). This area of practice involves both trial-level skills, when evidentiary hearings are granted by the trial court, and appellate skills, as a client has an appeal of right if his or her petition is denied.

C. Federal Habeas Corpus: Death Penalty Division attorneys also represent capital clients in federal courts on habeas corpus proceedings. A habeas petition is filed after a client has exhausted his or her direct appeal and state post-conviction remedies. On habeas, attorneys combine the prior claims raised on direct appeal and state post-conviction in one petition to the United States District Court. In this habeas petition, the client may only seek relief on claims that involve a violation of the United States Constitution (for example, violation of the Sixth Amendment right to effective counsel or violation of the Eighth Amendment right to present mitigating evidence for sentencing).

Habeas cases are complex. An attorney on a capital habeas case must know substantive constitutional law and must be well-versed in a body of law that deals with the procedural technicalities that often arise when a federal court reviews a state prisoner's claim. This area of practice also combines the skills used in direct appeals and state post-conviction cases. Habeas counsel may be called upon to take depositions, examine witnesses at a hearing, and draft appellate briefs (all habeas cases filed in Ohio, win or lose, are reviewed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit in Cincinnati).

IV. Juvenile Division

Juvenile Division attorneys represent juveniles who have been committed to the Ohio Department of Youth Services on appeal and in other post-disposition issues. In addition to providing legal representation on appeal, attorneys offer legal assistance, such as gathering general information for youth, correcting sentencing errors, and filing motions in juvenile court. The Juvenile Division also coordinates with and provides training to defense attorneys who handle juvenile work around the state, and provides legislative advocacy on right to counsel issues and other substantive issues involving children in the justice system.

V. Trial Division

Ohio Revised Code §120.06(D) provides that the State Public Defender may represent an indigent person accused of a serious crime when appointed by a court or when a county public defender makes a request for assistance.

The agency's Trial Division attorneys represent clients in capital or other high-profile trials, generally when conflicts prevent local counsel from providing representation or the county otherwise lacks necessary resources.

The State Public Defender also accepts cases under the County Representation Program whenever resources permit. In most instances, these are appeals for which judges are unable to secure local counsel.

VI. Branch Offices

Ohio Revised Code §120.04(C)(7) allows the State Public Defender to contract with a joint or county public defender commission or with a board of county commissioners to provide services that a county public defender would otherwise provide. The State Public Defender operates two such programs: the Trumbull County Branch Office and the Multi-County Branch Office.

A. Trumbull County Branch Office: The State Public Defender has maintained and operated a branch office in Trumbull County since 1984. Located in Warren, this office delivers indigent criminal defense representation in the courts of Trumbull County.

The office staff includes attorneys, investigators, a paralegal, and secretary. The State Public Defender also contracts with local attorneys, in order to afford flexibility in managing caseloads. Cases handled by staff and contract attorneys range from misdemeanors to capital offenses, including juvenile cases and appeals.

At the common pleas level, branch office attorneys provide representation in the four general divisions and in the juvenile and domestic relations divisions. At the municipal and county court levels, representation is provided in the cities of Niles, Newton Falls, Girard, Warren, Cortland, and Brookfield. Attorneys also provide appellate representation in the 11th District Court of Appeals in cases handled by the branch office in the lower courts, or for defendants who can no longer afford representation at the appellate level.

The state and county jointly fund the operation of the Trumbull County Branch Office. The percentage paid by each mirrors the reimbursement rate applicable to all counties under Ohio Revised Code chapter 120. Approximately ten percent of the Trumbull County contract obligation comes from the participating municipalities.

B. Multi-County Program: The State Public Defender began operation of the Multi-County Branch Office Program in fiscal year 1991. The program includes ten counties in the south and southeastern part of the state: Adams, Athens, Brown, Fayette, Jackson, Meigs, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, and Washington.

The State Public Defender has established three branch offices in Athens, Ross, and Washington counties. These offices provide indigent defense services to these counties and offer support services to all participating counties. There are private attorneys or law firms working under contract in each of the ten counties.

The program is supported by financial contributions from both the counties and the state, with the state contributing a portion relatively equal to the percentage of overall state reimbursement.

Prior to the implementation of the Multi-County Program, all participating counties, except Athens, used the appointed counsel system exclusively. Under an appointed counsel system, attorneys are paid on a case-by-case basis. Because of this, as caseloads increase, costs are likely to increase proportionately. Under the Multi-County Program, contract attorneys and assistant state public defenders agree to provide representation in cases assigned to them over a fixed period of time for a pre-determined fee or salary. An increase in caseload, therefore, does not directly increase the overall cost, since existing staff can absorb much of the increased caseload. The result is a lower average cost per case and a lower overall cost.

VII. County Outreach Section

This section provides a free consulting service to Ohio counties, conducting an in-depth evaluation of their local indigent defense system. This evaluation includes making recommendations to help counties reduce costs, improve the quality of service, and maximize state reimbursements. The office gathers data, prepares budgets, conducts statistical analysis, and provides other information on current and alternative delivery systems.

The State Public Defender central office also offers assistance to county public defenders' investigators. County public defenders typically cannot afford to purchase access to various records databases. The Outreach Section takes requests from the county public defender investigators to run searches for their cases. The vast majority of the requests are for arrest records and for help in locating witnesses.

VIII. Investigation and Mitigation Section

Criminal Investigators assist attorneys by developing evidence to be used during trial or, after the trial or, for state post-conviction or federal habeas. The criminal investigator's focus is twofold: first, analyzing and challenging the evidence the State uses to carry its burden of proof; and second, finding evidence the defendant needs to rebut the State's case.

Mitigation Specialists assist attorneys in developing evidence that will mitigate the punishment imposed on clients found guilty of capital or non-capital offenses. In non-capital cases, they work to develop community placements as an alternative to incarceration and to provide information that may lower the prison term if one is imposed. In capital cases, mitigation specialists do the critical work of tracking down information about a client's life history that attorneys rely on in their efforts to demonstrate that a death sentence is inappropriate for their client.

IX. Wrongful Conviction Project

The Wrongful Conviction Project, launched in the fall of 2009, is designed to identify potential wrongful convictions from Ohio courts, where other appellate remedies have failed. The Ohio Innocence Project in Cincinnati primarily reviews cases where the testing of biological evidence (DNA) is at issue, which leaves a need for assessing claims of innocence where DNA evidence is not available. The Wrongful Conviction Project was created to respond to that need, and therefore works exclusively on non-DNA innocence claims. The Office of the Ohio Public Defender's established credibility, demonstrated dedication to criminal defense, and existing connection to the community, attorneys, and government agencies within Ohio made it an ideal place to house such a project. The project investigates cases by analyzing the reliability of the evidence presented at trial and, when appropriate, providing representation.

In 2010, the Wrongful Conviction Project, in cooperation with The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law, created a post-graduate fellowship, wherein a first-year graduate works as the project attorney for one year. The current project attorney fellow is scheduled to continue working on the project through October 2012. In March of 2012 the Wrongful Conviction Project Director applied for a Wrongful Conviction Review Program Grant through the U. S. Department of Justice. If awarded, the grant funds would in part fund the project attorney position for two additional years, as well as add a fulltime investigator to the project staff.

Under the supervision of the project director and the project fellow, law students from Capital Law School serve as externs for one semester, gaining college credit by reviewing and investigating innocence claims. Several of the Capital students have continued to volunteer with the project after completing their externship. One intern from Ohio State's Law School continued to work for the project during FY 2012, and a student from the University of Cincinnati worked fulltime for the Wrongful Conviction Project through a Summer Public Interest Fellowship beginning in May 2012.

NOTES TO TABLE I: OHIO PUBLIC DEFENDER COMMISSION EXPENDITURES

FY 12 Expenditures: Net expenditures of fiscal year 2012 budget appropriations using the budgetary basis of accounting. Under the budgetary basis, the agency matches or accrues all expenditures to the fiscal year for which they were appropriated. The figures include disbursements of fiscal year 2012 appropriations made between July 1, 2011 and June 30, 2012, plus payments of fiscal year 2012 open encumbrances made between July 1, 2012 and November 30, 2013.

The agency uses this method for two reasons. First, it is common for the agency to have open encumbrances at year end; however, not all of the open encumbrances are always disbursed – some may lapse, meaning they go unspent. To include the full value of open encumbrances at year end would overstate fiscal year 2012 appropriations actually expended. Second, and for a similar reason, we exclude disbursements of prior year encumbrances made in the current year. For example, we would exclude a large equipment acquisition encumbered and received in fiscal year 2011, but not vouchered until fiscal year 2012, because it would overstate expenditure of fiscal year 2012 appropriations.

019403: Multi-County: State Share: This line item is used to fund the state’s share of the Multi-County Branch Office.

019404: Trumbull County: State Share: This line item is used to fund the state’s share of the Trumbull County Branch Office.

019405 Training Account: This line item is to fund attorney training seminars under the pro bono qualification.

019501: County Reimbursement: This line item is used for state reimbursement to the counties for their indigent defense expenditures.

019604: County Representation: Revenues for this account come from funds paid to the State Public Defender by counties throughout the state where counties have requested the State Public Defender to provide counsel in local cases. Upon providing such representation, the State Public Defender bills the county for a portion of the costs.

019605: Client Payment Fund: This account receives revenues from the Indigent Application Fee per R.C. 120.36 and from Client Recoupment per R.C. 2941.51(D). Funds received are used for State Public Defender operating expenses.

019606: Legal Services Corporation: This account is used for the Civil Legal Services Program. TABLE VIII
COST OF COUNTY PUBLIC DEFENDER OFFICES
FISCAL YEARS 2011 & 2012

Table VIII shows the 100 percent cost the counties reported to the State Public Defender to operate public defender offices, followed by the amount reimbursed each year for fiscal year 2011 and fiscal year 2012. Counties prepare monthly expense reports that are certified by county auditors. The county auditor then submits the report to the State Public Defender for reimbursement for up to 50 percent of allowable costs. In fiscal year 2011 & 2012 the state reimbursement rate was 35 percent.

TABLE X
APPOINTED COUNSEL SYSTEMS CASELOAD, HOURS, AND EXPENSES
FISCAL YEAR 2012

Table X, on the following pages, shows the caseloads and 100 percent costs submitted for reimbursement during fiscal year 2012. The table shows cases, hours, and expenses broken down into seven categories -- felonies, misdemeanors, juvenile, appeals, death penalty, felonies in municipal/county court, and other. The cases in the category "felonies in municipal/county court" are felonies that are initially filed in municipal or county court. The cases are only in those courts for a brief period of time prior to indictment, the preliminary hearing, or 15 days after arrest, whichever comes first. Since the longest these cases can last is 15 days and the municipal court has no jurisdiction to find a defendant guilty of a felony, and since most of the cases will eventually be picked up at the common pleas court level, they are not counted as a "felony" case at this stage. This prevents giving the same weight to a case that lasts 14 days and the full-fledged case that lasts six months. It also prevents double counting the same case. The category "other" includes postconviction, parole, habeas corpus, extradition, and other miscellaneous cases.

In fiscal year 2012, the state reimbursed the counties at an average monthly rate of 35 percent.

It should be noted the figures in this table are reported using the cash basis of accounting, meaning they show the cases and costs submitted to the Office of the Ohio Public Defender that were actually reimbursed during fiscal year 2012 pursuant to the Office of the Ohio Public Defender's reimbursement schedule. Because the cash basis is used, the bills were generally paid by the counties 90 days earlier, so these figures will not match cases and costs reported by counties on either a calendar or fiscal-year basis.

The case figures are based on reimbursement for both new and ongoing cases, so case figures are not cumulative from fiscal year to fiscal year. Attorneys may submit more than one bill per case and often, because of the length of time needed to dispose of a case, bills are received in more than one fiscal year and those cases are counted in each fiscal year in which a bill is received. There also may be instances where the number of cases is zero, but expense figures are shown. In these instances, experts or other non-attorneys submitted bills for cases in which the attorney billed during a different fiscal year.

The key to Table X is as follows:

Cases: The number of cases submitted and accepted for reimbursement after adjustments*. This is determined by counting each individual and unique case number as one case.

Total Hours: The number of total hours reported, after adjustments*.

Attorney Fees: The total amount of attorney fees submitted for reimbursement per each kind of case, after adjustments*.

Expenses: The total amount of expenses submitted for reimbursement after adjustments*.

Transcripts: The total amount of transcript fees submitted for reimbursement after adjustments*.

Total Cost: The 100 percent cost, after adjustments*, that was subject to reimbursement.

Avg. Fees/Hour: Attorney fees submitted divided by the number of hours reported. This does not include expenses.

Avg. Fees/Case: The total fees submitted divided by the number of cases reported. This does not include expenses.

Avg. Ttl. Cost/Case: Total cost divided by the number of cases submitted, including expenses.

Adjustments include reducing fee requests for exceeding the State or County Fee Schedule, unallowable or undocumented expenses, denying reimbursement for failure to prove indigency, late submissions, etc.*
